📄 Executive Summary

Mohana Chattopadhyay is a seasoned Technopreneur and Business Professional with over 30 years of varied work experience. Her hands-on exposure spans multiple industry verticals, allowing her to expertly manage all functional aspects of corporate operations. She wears multiple hats, notably serving as a Serial Entrepreneur, Startup Founder, Mentor, Angel Investor, Venture Builder, and Certified Independent Director.

Spearheading ValueCare over the past 15 years, she has developed highly specific skill sets in Information Technology (IT) and Information Communications Technology (ICT). This deep technical convergence is matched by her thorough understanding of Corporate Governance, Data Privacy, Valuation, and the Statutory Compliances mandated under Corporate Law.

Her core competencies lie heavily in Change Management, Conflict Management, and Crisis Management. As an Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) Professional, she actively serves as both an Arbitrator and Mediator. She also champions gender-specific Best Practices, driving policies built around Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion within the corporate boardroom.
